About the College:

Karimpur is geographically located as the borderline between Nadia and Murshidabad and it is also very near to our neighbouring country Bangladesh. So, the place has its own socio-political and cultural importance from the very beginning. On 4th August 1968 as a 'Home of Higher Education' Karimpur Pannadevi College was established to cater higher education to the people of Karimpur and its vast locality, particularly for the students belonging to the poor and middle-class families who cannot afford to go far off places for meeting the demand of higher education. The College has now a three-storied building measuring about 40,000 sq.ft., having a campus of about 7 acres. Presently the College offers education to around 4,000 students of Arts, Science and Commerce streams. Students come from different corners of the locality. The college has its well-furnished spacious Guest House and Women Hostel ready for the students. Since its inception, the college is committed to transforming the darkened demographic situation into an awakened one by imparting higher education to the aspiring youth. Previously the college was affiliated to the University of Calcutta and from 1999-2000 onwards the College is affiliated to the University of Kalyani at the undergraduate level. The College has got its recognition from UGC under section 2f & 12B.

Theme of the Seminar:

The best way to measure the progress of a defined society is judged by the state of women. Today there is an increasing consensus about the fact that status of women in socio-economic and political sphere is regarded as one of the major indicators to measure country's Human Development. In third world countries like India and Bangladesh, several policies have been initiated towards the development of women. Before and after independence, the act of mobilising women in the social and political spheres is yet to be opened. The status of women in politics, in society, and economic sector needs to be explored in a comprehensive manner. The male chauvinistic hegemony through the practices and social customs from the past is still tickling down to generations and still percolating in pieces of thoughts. Both the countries have taken several steps to ensure the participation of women in political process, to increase their economic capacity, to protect them from all forms of violence, to provide their health security, to provide an inclusive education to women etc. Though mindset of the society is slowly changing, but still in India the violence against women and the attitude towards them are very pathetic. Still, the high MMR rate and infant mortality rate of girl child, rampant female foeticide, decreasing sex ratio in census have already raised questions against the women security as well as social security in this sub-continent. At the same time in both countries, there are some powerful women political figures who have been playing a vital role and are not only dominating in the core of governance but also have influence in policy making. Globalisation has changed the traditional dimension of the so called third world countries like India and Bangladesh and life and livelihood of the women society are also facing multidimensional changes. Let us hope that this International seminar will be a common platform to share all those matters with the help of academic discourse.

Brief Report of the International Seminar on 'Women, Society and Politics: A Study on India and Bangladesh', was held on 24th-25th April,2018 at Karimpur Pannadevi College, Karimpur, Nadia, West Bengal.

Let me have the honour to inform you that our college has successfully arranged the International seminar on Women, Society and Politics: A Study on India and Bangladesh on 24th-25th April, 2018 with the financial support from Moulana Abul Kalam Azad Institute of Asian Studies (MAKAIAS) in association with Jahangirnagar University, Bangladesh. To make this event academically more vibrant honourable resource persons from different universities and colleges adorned the seminar. The most remarkable things is that near about 70 teachers and research scholars have presented their profound and thought provoking research papers in this two days' seminar on the different issues related to Women, Society and Politics. The Paper presenters came from different colleges which are affiliated to esteem Universities like Vidyasagar University, Gour Banga University, Culcutta University, Burdwan University, Kalyani University, and Jawaharlal Nehru University etc. A research scholar from JNU presented a paper on Women Trafficking. 50 students including 7 students from the Department of Government and Politics, Jahangirnagar University, Bangladesh have actively participated in this International event. This student Exchange Programme has been applauded by almost all the dignitaries and this has made an appropriate platform for us to carry out a pioneering role to make this programme more effective in future. The students of Bangladesh have not only presented their research paper, but also shared their valuable experiences of their country regarding women society and politics during the interaction session.

The best part of our seminar had been the speeches delivered by our National and International scholars of repute. On 24th April Professor Dr. Shamsun Nehar Khanam, Honurable Chairperson of Jahangirnagar University discussed on Violence against Women: Bangladesh Perspective, followed by Pratip Chattopadhyay, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Kalyani University who presented his lecture on Concept of New Glass Ceiling. After that Dr. Nirmalya Majumder, Honourable Teacher-in-Charge of Kanchrapara College has raised some methodological Issues on Women Studies. All these had highly illuminated the participants. On 25th April, one of the remarkable lectures was presented by Dr. Sreeradha Dutta, (Distinguish Fellow, Asian Confluence and Former Director of MAKAIAS) on Women Leaders of India and Bangladesh. On the other hand Professor Nassem Akhter Hossain, Department of Government and Politics, Jahangirnagar University, Bangladesh discussed on the question of Gender equality in the State of Democracy. On the same day our two other Resource Persons from Department of English, Kalyani University, of which Dr. Niladri Ranjan Chatterjee presented a well informative lecture on Patriarchy and Women Safety, while Smt. Sharmila Majumder highlighted on the necessity and functions of establishing Anti Sexual Harassment Cell in Higher Educational Institutions as per latest UGC guidelines. A colourful brochure has also been published for this seminar which contains welcome messages by various dignitaries and Abstracts of the Paper Presenters as well as of the Resource Persons. (Contd - - -)

The seminar ended uniquely where the Teacher –in- Charge, Sri Kaustav Bhattacharyya has given his formal Vote of thanks in the Valedictory session and after that all the particiapants chanted the national anthems of both Bangladesh and India.

Let us hope that the issues which have been raised in this platform of the international seminar will not only enhance the academia of the participants but also play a fruitful role in enhancing the condition of women in this subcontinent.

About the College:

Karimpur is geographically located as the borderline between Nadia and Murshidabad and it is also very near to our neighboring country Bangladesh. So the place has its own socio-political and cultural importance from the very beginning. On 4th August, 1968 as a 'Home of Higher Education' Karimpur Pannadevi College was established to cater higher education to the people of Karimpur and its vast locality, particularly for the students belonging to the poor and middle class families who cannot afford to go far off places for meeting the demand of higher education. The College has now a three-storied building measuring about 40,000 sq.ft., having a campus of about 7 acres. Presently the College offers education to around 4,000 students of Arts, Science streams. Students come from different corners of the locality. The college has its well-furnishedspacious Guest House and Women Hostel ready for the students. The College is affiliated to the University of Kalyani at the undergraduate level.

Gracious participation of interested academician and scholars are appreciated.

Yours Sincerely

SPONSORED NATIONAL SEMINAR

ON

Locating State and Society in Indian Political Thought
(NSLSSIPT-2020)

12RD & 13TH MARCH, 2020

Venue: Karimpur Pannadevi College

Organised By :

Department of Political Science

Karimpur Pannadevi College

Karimpur, Nadia, PIN 741152

Website: karimpurpannadevicollege.ac.in

Theme of the Seminar:

Political thought by definition is the conglomeration of the essence of ideas of various thinkers chronologically contextualized in a particular setting who have reflected on the social and political issues of their time. Political thought is the philosophical, ideological and historical basis of management of society and politics of a country. Political thought thus become roadmap for the manager/politicians of a country. Political thought of a rich and heritage civilization like that of India offers interesting and diverse reflection on issues of social and political importance. Indian political thought is a rich body of literature which requires continuous analysis to unearth whatever message/guidance can be found for inspiration and innovation in contemporary management of Indian body polity. 21st century for many analysts is an 'Asian century' in which India gets primary attention due to its economic market and political bargaining capacity. In the available literature on the importance of India, the normative and philosophical orientation of the ancient, medieval and modern phases of Indian political thought is missed out. The available literature in Indian political thought traces the evolution of administrative experiences on the basis of ruling empire / class pattern across the various ages/phases in India. Therefore literature is silent on the distinct approach towards state and society through a philosophical phraseology in the lines of Idealism, Liberalism, Socialism, Marxism, Radicalism, and Environmentalism. The proposed seminar intends to interrogate the mainstream portrayal of India political thought and replace it with stratifying important political and social thinkers on the basis of their philosophical rootedness and their approach to 'State' and 'Society' in their times. The cumulative approach can then be theorized to identify the nature of Indian political culture in Indian political thought. Interacting between state and society remain interwoven with the 'laws' of the 'State' and prevalent 'customs' of 'Society' which finds different approach in different philosophical tradition. The proposed National Seminar attempts to highlight this aspect.

I feel very glad to inform that the IQAC of our college have successfully conducted an International webinar on " Understanding Educational Challenges, Opportunities, Students' Mind Under Pandemic : A Road Ahead,"- held on 12nd July , 2020. The theme of the webinar was very relevant under this unnerving situation when our students are in crossroads on the way of their higher studies. Erudite resource persons from different educational institutions, India and abroad have joined in this webinar to make it more fruitful. Three renowned teachers from Jahangirnagar University, Bangladesh have wonderfully explored their views on Digital Learning and Digital Divide Debate. It creates an opportunity to compare the educational challenges which are facing by the students of our state and abroad. Swami Kamalsthanandaji Maharaj, Principal, Ramakrishna Mission Vivekananda Centenary College presented the history of pandemic from the ages of human civilization briefly and also the challenges emerged under this condition. The growing concern on students' Mind and their mental health was discussed by the journalist of Anandabazar Patrika (West Bengal), Sri Debasis Bandhyopadhyay. The number of registered participants in the webinar was 432. Almost 150 participants were from abroad. Not only the students, scholars, teachers and other officials from differed reputed educational institutions have registered for the webinar. At the end of the webinar resource persons provide their valuable answers against the questions of their deliberations. This time also the E-Certificate of Participation was provided only to the active participants who submitted feedback forms successfully.

Brief Completion Report of the National Webinar on " Dream and Identity in American Literature: The Construction of American Ethos"- was held on 22nd July , 2020, organised by the Department of English in Collaboration with IQAC of Karimpur Pannadevi College.

Let me have the pleasure to state that the Department of English of our college in collaboration with IQAC has successfully conduct the one day National webinar on " Dream and Identity in American Literature: The Construction of American Ethos"- was held on 22nd July , 2020,. To get familiar our students about the American Literature and Society and to create a national platform to share various views regarding American Identity the Department organised this national level webinar. Two erudite scholars on this theme Dr. S.M. Yahiya Ibrahim, Head of the Department of English, Karim City College, Jamshedpur and Dr. Siddharta Biswas, Associate Professor, Department of English, University of Calcutta and Former Faculty of St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College, Department of English delivered their resourceful presentation on the theme of the webinar from different dimensions. Almost 555 (five hundred fifty five) participants across the country have participated in this webinar. The present webinar stressed on how far the 'dream' and its value is successful in shaping one's identity in the American society as perceived in the writing of the American scholars. The discussion of the webinar on American Dream and how the identity of a citizen is shaped in pursuit of this 'dream', surely helped them to look at America without any prejudice, bias or illusion. I firmly believed that it helped them to judge American society and the promises it makes to its citizens, with more clarity using their own conscience, rationality and not through any coloured glass. All the participants submitted their feedback have received the E- certificate of participation.

OBJECTIVES OF THE WEBINAR:

The term American Dream was coined by James Truslow Adams (Epic of America, 1931) and has its root in the Declaration of Independence which upholds certain unalienable rights like Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. In a society based on these principles, an individual can live life to its fullest as he or she defines it. America grew mostly as a nation of immigrants who created a nation where becoming an American didn't require being the child of an American. In contrast to Great Britain and its strict class structure, the United States endows opportunity to all Americans, even those with poor economic backgrounds, to become pillars of their communities. In fact, within the whole of the American psyche, there lies an eternal hope that the nation's citizens will be afforded the opportunity for both monetary growth and social advancement. The strife of shaping one's identity in pursuit of this dream has been used in popular discourse, and scholars have traced its use in American literature ranging from the Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin , to Mark Twain's The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn , Willa Cather's My Ántonia , F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby , Theodore Dreiser's An American Tragedy , Toni Morrison's Song of Solomon , Arthur Miller's Death of a Salesman and in the writings of Martin Luther King Jr. Other writers who used the American Dream theme include Hunter S. Thompson, Edward Albee, John Steinbeck, Langston Hughes, and Giannina Braschi. In fact American literature has achieved significance in the omnipresence of the the patterns of thinking and feeling which the American Dream has inspired. The present webinar will stress on how far the 'dream' and its value is successful in shaping one's identity in the American society as perceived in the writing of the American scholars.

PROBABLE OUTCOMES OF THE WEBINAR:

The American Dream which promises all Americans freedom and equality – the freedom to make both the large and small decisions that affect one's life, the freedom to aspire to bigger and better things and the possibility of achieving them, the freedom to accumulate wealth, the opportunity to lead a dignified life, and the freedom to live in accordance with one's values, is reflected in the American movies and popular cultures which are abundantly available to the young learners of a third world country like us in this age of internet revolution. It creates a sense of illusion among them that America is a country of all prosperity and happiness. The discussion of this webinar on American Dream and how the identity of a citizen is shaped in pursuit of this 'dream', will surely help them to look at America without any prejudice, bias or illusion. It will help them to judge American society and the promises it makes to its citizens, with more clarity using their own conscience, rationality and not through any coloured glass.

About the Theme:

This present webinar is going to focus on two interconnected issues of contemporary Philosophy. One is Applied Ethics, the emerging field of studying Philosophy and another deal with some socio-ethical issues in the very context of present pandemic. Both are equally valuable not only for our students and scholars, who are going through with this academic discipline , at same time it also provides a new dimension to other stakeholders also. Applied ethics refers to the practical application of moral considerations. It is ethics with respect to real-world actions and their moral considerations in the areas of private and public life, the professions, health, technology, law, and leadership. This field is becoming more relevant now-a-days as the transformation of moral dilemmas emerged out of critical problems and crisis. The prevailing "New form of untouchability" and "Non- cooperation" in the human society in the context of COVID-19 has questioned our morality and ethical approach. The webinar will also explore what should be the socio-ethical approach for the "Life with Pandemic".

Outcomes of Technical session 1:

Through the analysis of some case studies, will explore the ways in which moral decisions are made by us, depending on how we perceive the interconnectedness between moral ascriptions and causal ascriptions. Determination of moral agency, moral blame or moral praise involve intricate linking of the above two ascriptions, to which we are always not aware of as decision makers.

Outcomes of Technical session 2:

The second talk will enlighten us with the multidimensional features of social-ethical issues and necessity of designing ethical framework. The talk will also focus on the ethical bankruptcy faced by the world which needs to be studied and the piquancy on non-ethics needs to be reshaped and restored.

Vision:

Energy is at the heart of most critical economic, environmental and developmental issues facing the world today. It is one of the basic components for smooth functioning of human activity and played a pivotal role in human civilization. Fossil fuels are the conventional sources of energy which are non-renewable and their known reserves are depleting day bay day. Therefore, a fresh and systematic power infrastructure investment is needed to meet the current and future energy demand. On the verge of such a global energy crisis due to the rapid dissolution of fossil fuels, self-sustainable integrated energy systems can be the most plausible solution. Finding environmentally benign fossil fuel replica with a broad performance spectrum is still a very encouraging field of research. The increasing craze for portable electronics and hybrid vehicles are raising the bar for the model energy storage systems with high specific energy and power. Organic Solar Cell (OSC) is also a promising alternative for clean and renewable energy due to their potential to be fabricated onto large area, light-weight flexible substrates by solution processing at low cost. In recent times, a tremendous effort related to renewable energy devices has been put forwarded.

The webinar will explore:

1. The fundamentals of searching new energy resources which deal with a little ecological concern.
2. The new developments in supercapacitors, air-batteries, and renewable fuel generation with carbonaceous materials and non-noble metal-based catalysts.
3. The development of new π-conjugated systems for the advancement of Organic Solar Cell (OSC) research into a next level upto commercialization and application of these newly synthesized compounds as non fullerene acceptor into OSC device with poly(3-hexyl thiophene) (P3HT) as a wide band gap donor.

Webinar Summary Report: Energy for a Sustainable Future

Introduction:

Chemistry department of Karimpur Pannadevi College, Nadia, W.B., India in association with IQAC, organized an International Webinar on 8th October, 2020 at 3:00 pm (IST) to present selected knowledge to the wider network of teachers and students along with interested public. The main objective of the webinar was to exchange knowledge between the stakeholders focusing on the dissemination of ideas regarding newly explored areas of research and development which deals with the future energy resources. The brochures of the webinar including the objectives were circulated in different social media and college website prior to the commencement of the webinar. The webinar was conducted in Google Meet platform and the participants joined with YouTube link provided to them after registration.

Overview and topics of discussion:

Energy is at the heart of most critical economic, environmental and developmental issues facing the world today. It is one of the basic components for smooth functioning of human activity and played a pivotal role in human civilization. Fossil fuels are the conventional sources of energy which are non-renewable and their known reserves are depleting day by day. Therefore, a fresh and systematic power infrastructure investment will be needed to meet the current and future energy demand. On the verge of such a global energy crisis due to the rapid dissolution of fossil fuels, self-sustainable integrated energy systems can be the most plausible solution. Finding environmentally benign fossil fuel replica with a broad performance spectrum is still a very encouraging field of research. The increasing craze for portable electronics and hybrid vehicles are raising the bar for the model energy storage to renewable energy devices has been put forwarded. Organic Solar Cell (OSC) is a promising alternative for clean and renewable energy due to their potential to be fabricated onto large area, light-weight flexible substrates by solution processing at low cost.

The webinar explored:

1. The fundamentals of searching new energy resources which deal with a little ecological concern.
2. The new developments in supercapacitors, air-batteries, and renewable fuel generation with carbonaceous materials and non-noble metal-based catalysts.
3. The development of new π-conjugated systems for the advancement of Organic Solar Cell (OSC) research into a next level upto commercialization and application of these newly synthesized compounds as non fullerene acceptor into OSC device with poly (3-hexyl thiophene)(P3HT) as a wide band gap donor.

Webinar structure:

The international webinar was planned and organized by the convener, Dr. Kartick Chandra Pal, Assistant Professor, department of Chemistry, Karimpur Pannadevi College, Nadia.

The chief patron of this international webinar was Mr. Kaustav Bhattacharyya, Teacher in Charge of Karimpur Pannadevi College. The IQAC coordinator, Dr. Prasenjit Saha assisted the webinar with technical and other various supports throughout and upto the successful completion of the program. Departmental advisors of Karimpur Pannadevi College were: Dr. Mrinal Kanti Das, Assistant Professor; Abhijit Biswas, SACT; Jayasri Ray Kundu, SACT and Arnab Shil, SACT.

Outcomes:

Assistant and Associate professors, school teachers, college-students, Research scholars and scientific and technical officers from different institutes participated in this webinar. 178 Candidates registered in this webinar. Short interaction between audience and speaker on the topic of discussion in each technical session remained very fruitful where they figured intense and intrinsic view of the discussion. A feedback link was provided to the participants after the completion of the webinar. Various suggestions and complimentary notes from their feedback encouraged us to arrange more such webinars with some betterment in future. Certificates of participation were provided to the active participants on 17th October, 2020.

About the Webinar (Context and Objectives)

Our country is on the threshold of the completion of her 75 years of Independence, but even today, as per the different parameters of sustainable development (defined by national and international organizations) we are not at all at a desirable stage. Among the different shortcomings the socio-economic status of the women folk of the nation is still a matter of grave concern. In spite of framing various laws, rules and commissions for their development and security, they are still vulnerable to deprivation and assaults. In terms of MMR, violence against women,social and economical equality, their situation is still lagging far behind any positive outcome when compared to that of some developed nations. So at this juncture, the Women Welfare Cell of Karimpur Pannadevi College has arranged discourses before the stakeholders to delineate the bleak reality of the so called Women Space of our nation today.

The women counselling cell of the college which is very vibrant and effective to take care and monitor all the issues related to Girl students has taken an initiative to review the Liberty, Laws and the security of women in our society and country at large by arranging several discourses, online & offline, to share different aspects of various rules to ensure the socio-economic liberty of women of our nation and create an awareness on such issues of women emancipation among our stakeholders who are the future hope of our country.

Title: One day National Webinar on ""COVID 19 Vaccination Drive in India: Current Scenario and Future Prospects" (29/08/2021)

COVID 19 vaccination in India is underway and many crucial facts and myths are there in the minds of students, teachers and others. Our aim is to aware everyone, especially the students about the current scenario of the vaccination drive and let them understand the seriousness of the issue. Dr. Ghatge is a medical officer at Reliance covid care Centre and is a part of the huge Vaccination drive undertaken by reliance foundation. So far, they have vaccinated more than 1lakh beneficiaries in last 3-4 months. As an experienced campaigner of this cause, she was the right person to deliver the talk on this National Webinar. She showed us some ray of hope regarding the future of the COVID 19 Vaccination program and enlightened us about the true picture of the disease. Almost 160 participants have formally registered their names for this webinar form different parts and institution of the country. Some the eminent participants are from abroad also.
